BERKELEY TRAIN WRECKS AUTO

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 8.—What may turn out to be a fatal accident occurred here late today when F. H. Lewis of Honolulu was severely injured and his niece, Miss Barraclough, probably fatally hurt. Five others were more or less injured, but will recover.

Mr. Lewis and his party were in an automobile and in crossing the railroad tracks in this city was struck by a train. The machine was demolished and it was seemingly only a miracle by which all in it were not killed outright.

Over-Night Wireless To the Advertiser

Andrew Carnegie has closed all "public houses" in the vicinity of Skibo Castle. They have been open for generations, but all have gone out of business at the command of the Steel King.

Bombs loaded with deadly explosives were found in three tenements in New York today, one in the lower West Side, and two on the East Side. Philip Sanders picked up the first bomb as he was entering the fifteen-family brick house, No. 420 West Thirty-fifth street, about dawn. Sanders flung what he thought was a package of rubbish from the hallway into the street. A deafening explosion followed, Sanders being knocked senseless. He recovered to find a dense crowd gathered around the house. Bombs were discovered in several different tenement houses. The wave of anarchism which seems rampant now on the East Side is causing terror among thousands of tenement house dwellers.

The special train carrying Colonel Roosevelt and a party of newspaper men is due in San Francisco on the evening of September 14, next Saturday, on which date the Colonel will speak in the Auditorium.

The report that Vice-President Sherman is in an alarmingly poor physical condition, and that he may be obliged on account of ill health to decline the renomination for the vice-presidency, was authoritatively nixed here tonight by Harry A. Devendorf, Sherman's private secretary.

When the voters of Maine go to the polls Monday to elect a governor, a new Legislature and four Representatives to Congress, Maine will be in the center of the political spotlight, and the result, whatever it may be, is sure to be hailed by one side or the other as a certain forecast of the result next November.

Mrs. Helen M. Moore, wealthy and widely known throughout Massachusetts, is today the bride of her cousin, Charles S. Buffum, who made a fortune in Salem. Mrs. Moore is sixty-eight years old; her spouse is seventy-seven years. At the wedding last night Miss Nina Moore, a granddaughter of the bride, was bridesmaid.

According to an interview with Dr. Gaston Odin, of London, by the Paris correspondent of the Budget, the eminent European histologist has discovered a cancer antitoxin. He admits that he can not tell, without further experiments, whether it is a preventive or a curative, but he has isolated the amib or cancer microbe and has discovered a serum which destroys.

An official warning from Washington has been sent to Nogales to Leader Emilio Sampo that United States citizens or their property must not be molested. The message was sent today by courier, through Vice Consul Bowman of Nogales, Mexico, opposite this city.

Brigadier-General Almond B. Well, U. S. A. (retired), died in his home in Geneva, N. Y., today. He had been in ill health for the last two years. He was born in New York, June 16, 1842, and at the outbreak of the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army.

For the invention of apparatus for alleviating human suffering, two officers of the United States army corps, Major Paul S. Halloran and Captain Henry L. Brown, formerly of the First Reserve Hospital in Manila, P. I., have each received prizes amounting to $505.05 from the fund established by Empress Marie Feodorovna, of Russia, to reward those who benefit humanity by the introduction of painless healing methods.

Mount Magelk was the volcano which created all of the commotion this summer and which was credited to Katmai, according to William A. Hesse, a well known civil engineer who was in the Iliamna country near Katmai, Alaska, when the eruption started.

He says the two mountains are still in eruption, and expressed the belief that the vapors generated by their warmth have caused the unusual rains this summer up and down the Pacific coast.

More than half of the 136 passengers who sailed from San Francisco for the Far East this afternoon on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company liner Nile were missionaries returning to posts in China, which they were obliged to abandon during the revolution.

Roland G. Garros, the aviator, yesterday eclipsed the old world's record for altitude by about 2450 feet, ascending in a monoplane. Garros went up 16,240 feet. At this height the rarified atmosphere caused his engine to stop suddenly. The aviator had to volplane to the ground.

Dr. L. F. Baker of Johns Hopkins University rushed on a special train to Bar Harbor, to attend Mrs. John R. McLean, wife of the owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer and of the Washington Post, who is desperately ill in her summer home there.

President Taft told the delegates to the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Convention that no individual should allow his own selfish interests or his personal ambition to lead him to climbing into power over someone else.

"We should not forget our true relation to our fellowmen," he said, "nor the obligations we owe to those who, as individuals, make up the body politic."

When J. P. Morgan takes the stand before Senator Clapp's committee investigating campaign contributions he will be questioned not only about campaign contributions of 1904 and 1908, but also about any possible connections between contributions from 1900 to 1912, and any legislation in Congress.

Final plans for the funeral of Lieut. Gen. MacArthur were made last night. The funeral will be held at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, and interment will be in Milwaukee.

Mrs. MacArthur is better tonight, but her physician is still in constant attendance.

As a means of forcing the Italian government to make representations in Washington in behalf of Joseph E. and Arturo Giovannitti, the Lawrence, Mass., strike leaders confined there on a charge of murder, Syndicalists throughout Italy are today organizing a monster general strike to paralyze all industries throughout the country.

The condition of Wm. G. Irwin, who has been ill since his return recently from Honolulu, is reported as much improved.

President Taft has approved of the dismissal sentences imposed upon Capt. Jacques de la Fite, of the Seventh Infantry, stationed in the Presidency of Monterey, and Captain Reese of Philippine Scouts.

Lincoln Johnson of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A. established a new Pacific Coast record for the 440 yards dash last night in the Southern California swimming tournament. Johnson's time was 5 minutes, 51.3-5 seconds, or three-fifths of a second better than the previous coast record, held by Ludy Langer of Redondo beach.

MADE HER WELL WOMAN

Mrs. W. P. Valentine of Camden, N. J., says: "I suffered with pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I wish other suffering women would avail themselves of this valuable remedy."

For nearly forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and no sick woman does herself justice who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs.

HEALANI OARSMEN AT PEARL HARBOR

The Senior, Junior and Freshmen oarsmen of the Healani Club were the guests of James Jaeger yesterday on a run to Pearl Harbor in the fast power yacht Kulumani II. The crew men left Honolulu harbor at about 9 o'clock, and put in a very pleasant day aloft and ashore, landing at the Peninsula to enjoy a fine spread that had been carried along to satisfy outdoor appetites.

All run down, easily tired, nervous? And do not know what to take? Then go direct to your doctor. Ask his opinion of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It contains no alcohol, no stimulation, and is a blood purifier, a nerve tonic, a strong alternative, an aid to digestion. Ask your doctor about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a strong tonic for the weak.
